Wahnfried Gardens

L. J. Germann
Van Wert, Ohio

FOREWORD

Wahnfried Gardens have passed their twenty-eighth birthday, which makes them the oldest Peona Gardens in Van Wert. From a modest beginning, our collection has been added to each year, and at this time it includes nearly all of the world's best. We are located on South Washington and Elm Streets, in the seventh block due South from the Public Square. Visitors are always welcome.

ARRANGEMENT AND VARIETIES

We have arranged the varieties in alphabetical order. The figures at the left indicate their rating as established by The American Peony Society on a basis of 10 as perfect. Where no figures appear no rating has been given. The name of the variety is followed by the name of the Originator, and this by the color of the bloom. The rating should be of great assistance in making selections.

PRICES

The prices quoted are for roots from three to five eyes, and guaranteed to be true to name. Each root has my personal attention. If an error should occur the same is cheerfully rectified. We do not substitute unless instructed to do so.

SHIPPING TIME

We begin to dig Peonies as early in September as possible and continue until the ground freezes. The Fall is the best time to plant.

TERMS

Cash with order. Small orders we send by Parcel Post and large ones by Express. Write plainly your Express Office and any other shipping instructions.

Oriental Poppies

FINEST IN THE WORLD

"Eclipsing with its gorgeousness the lily and the rose,

The Oriental poppy in my quiet garden grows.

A brazen beauty of the East from some zenana strayed,

In scarlet silk and sable fringe most stunningly arrayed."

Oriental Poppies are the regal representatives of this popular genus growing 3 to 4 feet high, and far surpassing in splendor of bloom all the annual and biennial kinds. For gorgeous display of rich and brilliant coloring nothing equals them during their flowering season in May and June. They can be planted singly or in masses, and their large flowers and freedom of bloom render them conspicuous in any position. They begin to bloom after the passing of the tulips and other early Spring bulbs, and make a royal leader for that triple succession—the Iris, the Peona and the Rose. They are easy of culture and every garden should possess a collection of these beautiful Poppies.

The Quest of Love

By Sarah A. Pleas

O! garden mine, what pleasure waits
Among your rows of gorgeous bloom
For one who finds within your gates
The title deeds to vast estates
Of wealth, in beauty and perfume.
Today I come with new intent
To find the fairest flower of all
In form and color, size and scent,
Ah, he will know how much is meant
When by his name the flower I call.
How beautiful the flower must be
To make it worthy of his name,
That other eyes than mine can see
What his dear memory is to me
Whose love I count as more than fame.
Here's one that's white with heart of gold
A censer cup, for incense rare
And here is one of perfect mold
Whose silken petals seem to hold
The secret of all beauty there.
Here's one as pure, as white as snow
Fresh fallen on this world of ours
No hint of hue its petals show;
Shall I my name of names bestow
On this to make it King of flowers?
Here's one so bright it glows like flame,
What glorious color it has caught
From days and nights of June that came
To make it worthy the dear name
Which I have ever in my thought!
Ah, look at this! So large, so sweet,
A fluffy ball of pink and gold
In form and color all complete
Would we might stay the summer's feet
To keep such beauty in our hold!
O, what to choose! so fair are they—
So rich in color, form, perfume!
But which the fairest, who shall say?
I needs must come another day
To find my garden's richest bloom.
So in a sweet bewilderment
I turn to leave my peony beds;
I have not found the flower I meant
To give the name I love, but spent
The morning hours where beauty spreads.
Such charm before me that I fear
I cannot choose among them all
Since each and all, I hold so dear
And yet—The one flower must be here.
That love by his dear name would call.
O, here, I see! Close to me nods
A flower the color—soft blush rose,
So large, so sweet! Ah, by all odds,
This is a flower to please the Gods—
The best that in my garden grows!
My quest ends here, no farther I
Need seek among my peonies
To find the fairest flower, I cry
"O, royal bloom!" and he seems nigh
"I christen thee the Elwood Pleas."
